" MS Office Project 2003 in Action"

Ross Andren is a consultant with Pcubed. Pcubed, the world's pre-eminent project-management solutions company, is an Enterprise Premier Solution Provider of Microsoft. Pcubed won the Grand Prize in the Professional Services Vertical Solutions category in the Microsoft® Project 2002 Business Value Challenge (BVC). Pcubed earned the top spot for its Business Management System, a Professional Services Automation Solution, while in a competition that pitted the company against more than 35 other project management solutions submitted by companies worldwide.

Ross will present some of the new features of Project 2003 and introduce Microsoft's Enterprise Project Management Solution through a Case Study.

Project 2003 helps one to learn more quickly, manage more effectively and stay informed. Enterprise Project Management enables participation across the organisation through faster, better informed decision making, strategic resource management, effective resource deployment, alignment of people and projects with strategic objectives, empowerment of individuals and teams, advanced collaboration and integrated workflow and co-ordination
